TELEGRAMS ON PROBLEMS IN INDONESIA EXCHANGED BETWEEN AUSTRALIAN AND BRITISH GOVERNMENTS AND MOUNTBATTEN
(1945)

From: C.NBEPRA

To : MOSCOW

No.: 45 ✓

16th November 1945

M.V. PLUMB(i), the authorized representative of the Government, was appointed to accompany them. The Government informed MOUNTBATTEN of its decision and asked him to cooperate and, in particular, not to employ repressive measures against the Indonesians, since this could lead to internal complications in AUSTRALIA. In his reply M.(i) referred to heavy losses and internal disturbances in JAVA and said that all this made it impossible to carry out the Australian Government's decision. On 23rd October CHIFLEY communicated the following to MOUNTBATTEN: "The Indonesians will be landed in the ports of their choice, i.e. in SURABAYA or MEDAN." On 2nd October M. informed LONDON of this and declared that he would take no responsibility for landing the Indonesians under existing conditions and asked for instructions. In a telegram dated 23rd October CHIFLEY sent ATTLEE an explanation, stating that M. attached too much significance to the words of the Dutch, who were ready to suspect any political opponent of being an "extremist", and that the arrival of 140 Indonesians would hardly give great assistance to the extremists in their struggle for an independent republic. Further CHIFLEY [3% pointed out that] to abandon the Indonesians, as M. proposed, was impossible, as this would arouse serious anxiety in AUSTRALIA. [C% "]
